Zurich, Switzerland – SIX Telekurs Ltd, a leading financial information provider is pleased to announce a partnership with ProFinance Services SA, a financial advisory firm providing financial research and investment solutions, that will bring together their experience in data collection and investment solution tools. Banks and non-banks will be offered innovative solutions for the analysis and selection of financial assets.

Built upon SIX Telekurs data, ProFinance Bond Solutions® provides investment professionals with a consolidated view of the fixed income market to improve operational efficiency, to better manage risks and to select bonds.

Dr Claude Morgenegg, senior partner at ProFinance Services, explains: "This agreement is important to us. It is a great opportunity to turn data into solutions. The depth of information and large coverage of SIX Telekurs' data provides a solid foundation with which to construct our investment solution tools. Bond Solutions® organizes pertinent and useful intelligence into a single unified format. Thanks to the quality of SIX Telekurs' data, professionals can trust ProFinance Bond Solutions® to analyze, screen and support their bond trading decisions".

Markus Benz, Head of Partner Business at SIX Telekurs, says: "We are pleased that Profinance Services SA is using our SIX Telekurs bond data to create a bond investment decision service. The combination of our bond universe and their specialized knowledge of the bond market creates true value for investment professionals".

ProFinance Bond Solutions® is a dynamic platform that gives users access to credit market information and proprietary risk metrics to help measure risk exposure and capitalize on investment opportunities. It is a powerful screening tool that enables subscribers to apply a series of filters to identify bonds that meet their own individual selection criteria.
