SIX to supply financial content to CNNMoney Switzerland

SIX will be the official source for financial data for the new tv channel, website and social media channels of CNNMoney Switzerland, starting January 24, 2018. The Zurich-headquartered data vendor will supply financial content including market data and Switzerland's leading stock index SMI[®]. The content will be used across the CNNMoney Switzerland platforms. The partnership reflects the reputation of SIX as a premium data supplier, which counts other large media companies and search engines among its existing clients.

Robert Jeanbart, Division CEO SIX Financial Information, comments: "We welcome CNN's expansion to Switzerland and are pleased that CNN selected SIX in our home market. As a specialist supplier of financial information, SIX is well positioned to be partner for CNNMoney Switzerland. I am pleased that this partnership will allow this new multimedia platform to offer their customers up-to-date and precise information, based on our high-quality and accurate data."

Christophe Rasch, founder and CEO of CNNMoney Switzerland states: "The signature of this contract is a major step in setting up our editorial operations. SIX will provide us with key data to cover the Swiss stocks and indices and anticipate the coming trends on the market. Our reports on our website, on the social media platforms and on broadcast television will benefit from this high quality financial information."

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Julian Chan, Media Relations.
