RECOMMENDED CASH OFFER
FOR AQUIS EXCHANGE PLC ("AQUIS")
BY SIX EXCHANGE GROUP AG ("SIX")

to be effected by means of a Scheme of Arrangement under Part 26 of the Companies Act 2006

Summary

- The boards of SIX and Aquis are pleased to announce that they have reached agreement on the terms of a recommended cash offer for the entire issued and to be issued ordinary share capital of Aquis (the "Offer"). It is intended that the Offer will be implemented by way of a Court-sanctioned scheme of arrangement under Part 26 of the Companies Act.
- Under the terms of the Offer, each Aquis Shareholder will be entitled to receive:

For each Aquis Share:	727 pence in cash
	(the "Cash Consideration")
- The Cash Consideration provides value for Aquis Shareholders at a premium of approximately:
 - 120 per cent. to the Closing Price of 330 pence per Aquis Share on 8 November 2024 (being the last trading day before the commencement of the Offer Period);
 - 68 per cent. to the six-month volume weighted average price of 433 pence per Aquis Share to 8 November 2024 (being the last trading day before the commencement of the Offer Period);
 - 76 per cent. to the nine-month volume weighted average price of 413 pence per Aquis Share to 8 November 2024 (being the last trading day before the commencement of the Offer Period); and
 - 45 per cent. to the highest closing price per Aquis Share of 500 pence in the 12-month period prior to 8 November 2024 (being the last trading day before the commencement of the Offer Period).

The Offer values the entire issued and to be issued share capital of Aquis at approximately £207 million (using the treasury stock method for share options), and £225 million on a fully diluted basis, and implies an enterprise value of approximately £194 million.

If, on or after the date of this Announcement and on or prior to the Effective Date, any dividend and/or other distribution and/or return of capital is authorised, declared, made or paid or becomes payable in respect of Aquis Shares, SIX reserves the right to reduce the Cash Consideration payable under the terms of the Offer by an amount equal to all or part of any such dividend and/or other distribution and/or return of capital, in which case Aquis Shareholders would be entitled to receive and retain any such dividend and/or other distribution and/or return of capital.

Background to and reasons for the Offer

SIX operates a fully integrated exchange value chain, offering a diversified product portfolio for securities trading, stock market transactions, financial information and payment transactions, across multiple geographies. Central to SIX's exchange strategy has been a focus on addressing liquidity fragmentation trends by continually innovating the functionalities of its platform offering.

SIX considers an acquisition of Aquis to be a compelling strategic opportunity which will complement its established growth strategy and is aligned with its approach to capital allocation. SIX expects the acquisition of Aquis to strengthen its ability to serve customers in Switzerland, Spain and internationally with its reliable infrastructure services and seamless access to capital markets. It would also bring together the resources and capabilities of both businesses, and SIX expects both businesses to benefit from greater pan-European scale, driving growth opportunities beyond their respective home markets to the benefit of customers and market participants.

SIX shares Aquis' commitment to capital markets innovation and believes Aquis has a similar philosophy with respect to liquidity, offering choice to users and challenging pan-European incumbents in all parts of the value chain. SIX believes that Aquis' next-generation proprietary exchange technology, paired with SIX's complementary assets across the wider spectrum of financial market infrastructure, network of partners and industry experience, will present a unique value proposition supporting the future growth of Aquis' technology business and unlock recurring revenue streams.

Aquis offers SIX the opportunity to extend its offering across the traditional primary exchange business, MTFs and data offerings. The acquisition of Aquis is expected to extend SIX's pan-European liquidity footprint by unlocking additional revenue pools across a number of markets. The acquisition will preserve a strong investment grade rating for SIX.

In addition, the combination with Aquis' infrastructure that facilitates SMEs and growth companies in accessing capital markets is expected to create the opportunity for a competitive pan-European listing venue complementing SIX's existing growth segments and extending SIX's access to additional revenue pools.

Furthermore, SIX expects Aquis to provide the opportunity to create an increasingly attractive offering for retail brokers by extending SIX's universe of tradable securities across Europe. The acquisition is also expected to create greater execution quality for retail liquidity across Europe.

Background to and reasons for the recommendation

Since its formation in 2012, Aquis has grown from a start-up subscription based exchange to a diversified, multi-product challenger next-generation exchange group with the objective of creating better and more efficient markets for the modern economy. Aquis' success has been driven by high quality leadership and technology-led innovation which has delivered strong operating performance with revenue growing by 495% since IPO alongside a significant improvement in profitability, delivering a £5.2 million profit in 2023.

Whilst the Aquis Directors are confident in the growth potential in each of Aquis' divisions, they recognise that the European exchange market remains highly competitive and requires ongoing investment in technology and distribution against well-resourced peers operating with greater scale. Aquis' future growth is predicated on an increase in new technology clients along with retention of existing clients, an increase in European equity market volumes and issuers, and the timing and impact of a European Consolidated Tape, which are uncertain and contain an element of volatility.

The Aquis Directors believe that Aquis could realise the full potential of its current strategy on a standalone basis in the medium term but recognises that there are operational, commercial and market risks associated with the timing of delivery of future value. The Aquis Directors have assessed the Offer in this context.

Following careful consideration, the Aquis Directors have concluded that the terms of the Offer provide Aquis shareholders with an attractive opportunity to accelerate and de-risk future value creation and realise certain value of their holdings today in cash.

The Cash Consideration follows extensive discussions and negotiations between Aquis and SIX, including several unsolicited proposals from SIX.

The Aquis Directors have taken all relevant factors into account in considering the terms of the Offer, including:

- The opportunity for Aquis Shareholders to realise a fair and reasonable value for their holdings in cash. The certainty of the Offer should be weighed against the operational, commercial and market risks associated with Aquis executing on its strategy and delivering such value as an independent listed company.
- The attractive premia to recent share price metrics as set out above.
- The Cash Consideration implies valuation multiples for Aquis that the Aquis Directors consider to be attractive.

In addition, the Aquis Directors welcome SIX's stated strategic plans and intentions for Aquis, its management and employees and believe that under SIX's ownership, Aquis will be better placed to deliver on its strategy of developing innovative capital market solutions from a position of further scale.

Recommendation

The Aquis Directors, who have been so advised by Evercore as to the financial terms of the Offer, consider the terms of the Offer to be fair and reasonable. In providing advice to the Aquis Directors, Evercore have taken into account the commercial assessments of the Aquis Directors. Evercore is providing independent financial advice to the Aquis Directors for the purposes of Rule 3 of the Takeover Code.

Accordingly, the Aquis Directors intend to unanimously recommend that Aquis Shareholders vote (or procure votes) in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and to vote (or procure votes) in favour of the Aquis Resolution(s) at the General Meeting as the Aquis Directors who (or whose immediate family) beneficially hold Aquis Shares have irrevocably undertaken to do (or procure to be done) in respect of 1,406,446 Aquis Shares in total, representing in aggregate approximately 5.1 per cent. of Aquis' ordinary share capital in issue as at the Latest Practicable Date. These irrevocable undertakings remain binding in the event a higher competing offer is made for Aquis by a third party.

Shareholder support

In addition to the irrevocable undertakings given by the Aquis Directors referred to above, SIX has also received irrevocable undertakings from XTX Investments UK Limited, Gaudenzio Roveda, Richard Ricci, Kendall Capital Markets, LLC and Jonathan Clelland to vote (or procure votes) in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and the Aquis Resolution(s) at the General Meeting in respect of 9,229,138 Aquis Shares, representing approximately 33.5 per cent. of the ordinary share capital of Aquis in issue as at the Latest Practicable Date. The irrevocable undertakings given by XTX Investments UK Limited, Richard Ricci and Jonathan Clelland remain binding in the event a higher competing offer is made for Aquis by a third party.

In addition, SIX has also received non-binding letters of intent from Schroder Investment Management Limited and Canaccord Genuity Asset Management Limited to vote (or procure votes) in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and the Aquis Resolution(s) at the General Meeting, in respect of, in aggregate, 3,342,123 Aquis Shares, representing approximately 12.1 per cent. of the ordinary share capital of Aquis in issue as at the Latest Practicable Date.

SIX has therefore received, in aggregate, irrevocable undertakings and letters of intent in respect of 13,977,707 Aquis Shares, representing approximately 51 per cent. of Aquis' ordinary share capital in issue as at the Latest Practicable Date.

Further details of these irrevocable undertakings and letters of intent, including the circumstances in which they may lapse, are set out in paragraph 6 of this Announcement and in Appendix 3 to this Announcement.

Timetable and Conditions

- It is intended that the Offer will be effected by way of a Court-sanctioned scheme of arrangement under Part 26 of the Companies Act. However, SIX reserves the right to elect to implement the Offer by way of a Takeover Offer, subject to the consent of the Panel (where necessary) and the terms of the Co-operation Agreement.
- The Offer is conditional on, among other things, the approval of the requisite majority of the Scheme Shareholders at the Court Meeting and Aquis Shareholders at the General Meeting. In order to become Effective, the Scheme must be approved by a majority in number of the Scheme Shareholders present and voting at the Court Meeting, either in person or by proxy, representing at least 75 per cent. in value of the Scheme Shares voted. In addition, the approval of the Aquis Resolution(s) by Aquis Shareholders representing at least 75 per cent. of votes cast at the General Meeting (expected to be held immediately after the Court Meeting) is also required for the implementation of the Scheme. In addition, following the Court Meeting, the Scheme must be sanctioned by the Court. Finally, a copy of the Court Order must be delivered to the Registrar of Companies, upon which the Scheme will become Effective. The Scheme must become Effective by no later than the Long Stop Date.
- The Offer will be made in accordance with the Takeover Code and on the terms and subject to the Conditions which are set out in Appendix 1 to this Announcement and on the further terms and conditions that will be set out in the Scheme Document.
- The Scheme Document, containing further information about the Offer and notices of the Court Meeting and the General Meeting, and which will be accompanied by the Forms of Proxy, will be published as soon as reasonably practicable, and in any event within 28 days of this Announcement (or such later time as SIX, Aquis and the Panel agree and, if required, the Court may approve). The Scheme Document will specify the actions to be taken by Aquis Shareholders and will contain an expected timetable for the implementation of the Scheme.
- The Scheme is expected to become Effective in Q2 2025, subject to the satisfaction or, where permitted, waiver of the Conditions set out in Appendix 1 to this Announcement.

Commenting on the Offer, Bjørn Sibbern, Global Head of Exchanges at SIX, said:

"We believe that combining Aquis with SIX's platform is a compelling opportunity to bring together two businesses with a shared commitment to capital markets innovation. The combination will add Aquis' strong offering to our traditional primary exchange and data businesses, complementing SIX's existing growth listing segments."

As part of SIX, Aquis will continue to operate under its existing brand and business model with maximum agility while benefitting from our resources, scale and further investment, enhancing Aquis' ability to continue to develop its business. We look forward to welcoming the Aquis team to SIX and continuing to build a diverse, pan-European Exchange Innovator."

Commenting on the Offer, Alasdair Haynes, founder and CEO of Aquis, said:

"I am immensely proud of the business we have built over the past 12 years. Since launching as a start-up subscription based exchange in 2012, Aquis has become a diversified multi-product European exchange group that creates and facilitates more efficient markets for a modern economy. This has only been possible through continuous technology-led innovation and the tireless efforts of our people.

Aquis has a clear path of growth ahead; however, the Aquis Directors recognise there are always some operational, commercial and market risks associated with the timing of future value creation. The Offer de-risks this future value creation and provides Aquis Shareholders with certain value at a material premium.

As part of SIX, we have an exciting opportunity to accelerate the development of our business and compete more effectively on the European stage, while retaining our entrepreneurial spirit. SIX shares our deep commitment to capital markets innovation and together we will be better placed to assist SMEs and growth companies in accessing capital markets."

Additional information for US investors

The Offer relates to the shares of an English company and is being made by means of a scheme of arrangement provided for under English company law. A transaction effected by means of a scheme of arrangement is not subject to the tender offer or proxy solicitation rules under the US Exchange Act. Accordingly, the Offer is subject to the disclosure requirements and practices applicable in the United Kingdom to schemes of arrangement which differ from the disclosure requirements of the US tender offer and proxy solicitation rules.

If, in the future, SIX exercises its right to implement the Offer by way of a Takeover Offer, which is to be made into the US, such Takeover Offer will be made in compliance with the applicable US laws and regulations, including Section 14(e) and Regulation 14E under the US Exchange Act. Such a Takeover Offer would be made in the US by SIX and no one else.

In the event that the Offer is implemented by way of Takeover Offer, in accordance with, and to the extent permitted by, the Takeover Code and normal UK market practice, UBS and their respective affiliates may continue to act as exempt principal traders or exempt market makers in Aquis Shares on the London Stock Exchange and will engage in certain other purchasing activities consistent with their respective normal and usual practice and applicable law, as permitted by Rule 14e-5(b)(9) under the US Exchange Act. In addition, SIX, its affiliates, their advisers and the nominees or brokers (acting as agents) may make certain purchases of, or arrangements to purchase, shares in Aquis outside the Offer, such as in open market purchases or privately negotiated purchases, during the period in which the Offer remains open for acceptance. If such purchases or arrangements to purchase were to be made, they would be made outside the US and would comply with applicable law, including UK laws and the US Exchange Act. Any such purchases by SIX or its affiliates will not be made at prices higher than the price of the Offer provided in this Announcement unless the price of the Offer is increased accordingly. Any information about such purchases or arrangements to purchase shall be disclosed as required under UK laws and will be available to all investors (including US investors) via the Regulatory Information Service and shall be available on the London Stock Exchange website at www.londonstockexchange.com. To the extent that such information is required to be publicly disclosed in the UK in accordance with applicable regulatory requirements, this information will, as applicable, also be publicly disclosed in the United States.

It may be difficult for US holders of Aquis Shares to enforce their rights and any claim arising out of the US federal securities laws in connection with the Offer, since SIX and Aquis are located in a non-US jurisdiction, and some or all of their officers and directors may be residents of a non-US jurisdiction. US holders of Aquis Shares may not be able to sue a non-US company or its officers or directors in a non-US court for violations of the US securities laws. Further, it may be difficult to compel a non-US company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a US court's judgement.

The financial information included in this Announcement, or that may be included in the Scheme Document, has been prepared in accordance with accounting standards applicable in the United Kingdom and thus may not be comparable to financial information of US companies or companies whose financial statements are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the US ("US GAAP"). The Offer values the entire issued and to be issued share capital of Aquis at approximately £207 million (using the treasury stock method for share options), and £225 million based on a fully diluted basis, and implies an enterprise value of approximately £194 million.

If, on or after the date of this Announcement and on or prior to the Effective Date, any dividend and/or other distribution and/or return of capital is authorised, declared, made or paid or becomes payable in respect of Aquis Shares, SIX reserves the right to reduce the Cash Consideration by an amount equal to all or part of any such dividend and/or other distribution and/or return of capital, in which case Aquis Shareholders would be entitled to receive and retain any such dividend and/or other distribution and/or return of capital authorised, declared, made or paid.

If and to the extent that any such dividend, distribution or return of value is authorised, declared, made or paid or becomes payable on or prior to the Effective Date, and SIX exercises its rights under this paragraph 2 to reduce the Cash Consideration payable under the terms of the Offer, SIX shall make an announcement in respect of the exercise of that right and any reference in this Announcement to the Cash Consideration payable under the terms of the Offer shall be deemed to be a reference to the Cash Consideration as so reduced.

It is expected that the Scheme Document (including details of the Court Meeting and the General Meeting), and the Forms of Proxy accompanying the Scheme Document, will be published as soon as reasonably practicable, and in any event within 28 days of this Announcement (or such later time as SIX, Aquis and the Panel agree and, if required, the Court may approve) and the Scheme will become Effective in Q2 2025, subject to the satisfaction or, where permitted, waiver of the Conditions set out in the Appendix 1 to this Announcement.

An expected timetable of principal events relating to the Offer and further information on the actions to be taken by the Aquis Shareholders will be provided in the Scheme Document.

3. Background to and reasons for the Offer

SIX operates a fully integrated exchange value chain, offering a diversified product portfolio for securities trading, stock market transactions, financial information and payment transactions, across multiple geographies. Central to SIX's exchange strategy has been a focus on addressing liquidity fragmentation trends by continually innovating the functionalities of its platform offering.

SIX considers an acquisition of Aquis to be a compelling strategic opportunity which will complement its established growth strategy and is aligned with its approach to capital allocation. SIX expects the acquisition of Aquis to strengthen its ability to serve customers in Switzerland, Spain and internationally with its reliable infrastructure services and seamless access to capital markets. It would also bring together the resources and capabilities of both businesses, and SIX expects both businesses to benefit from greater pan-European scale, driving growth opportunities beyond their respective home markets to the benefit of customers and market participants.

SIX shares Aquis' commitment to capital markets innovation and believes Aquis has a similar philosophy with respect to liquidity, offering choice to users and challenging pan-European incumbents in all parts of the value chain. SIX believes that Aquis' next-generation proprietary exchange technology, paired with SIX's complementary assets across the wider spectrum of financial market infrastructure, network of partners and industry experience, will present a unique value proposition supporting the future growth of Aquis' technology business and unlock recurring revenue streams.

Aquis offers SIX the opportunity to extend its offering across the traditional primary exchange business, MTFs and data offerings. The acquisition of Aquis is expected to extend SIX's pan-European liquidity footprint by unlocking additional revenue pools across a number of markets. The acquisition will preserve a strong investment grade rating for SIX.

In addition, the combination with Aquis' infrastructure that facilitates SMEs and growth companies in accessing capital markets is expected to create the opportunity for a competitive pan-European listing venue complementing SIX's existing growth segments and extending SIX's access to additional revenue pools.

Furthermore, SIX expects Aquis to provide the opportunity to create an increasingly attractive offering for retail brokers by extending SIX's universe of tradable securities across Europe. The acquisition is also expected to create greater execution quality for retail liquidity across Europe.

4. Background to and reasons for the recommendation

Since its formation in 2012, Aquis has grown from a start-up subscription based exchange to a diversified, multi-product challenger next-generation exchange group with the objective of creating better and more efficient markets for the modern economy.

Aquis' success has been driven by high quality leadership and technology-led innovation. Aquis Markets, Europe's 7th largest equities exchange, offers differentiated trading products and Europe's largest alternative closing auction. Aquis Technologies supported the first cloud-based Recognised Investment Exchange and provides one of the industry's lowest latency 24/7 matching engine, all developed on proprietary technology. Aquis Stock Exchange's focus on growth enterprises and start-up capital has made it the most successful growth company exchange for new admissions in the UK for the second year running. This strategic progress has been reflected in Aquis' strong operating performance with revenue growing by 495% since IPO alongside a significant improvement in profitability, delivering a £5.2 million profit in 2023.

A key pillar of Aquis' expected growth is accelerated momentum in Aquis Technologies where Aquis has experienced an increase in pipeline opportunities from a variety of potential clients of increasing scale. In order to address this opportunity, Aquis has recently commenced a three-year, £6.2 million investment programme to develop the set of products and capabilities required to shift Aquis' competitive positioning from a 'build on demand' to an 'on demand' proposition. The Aquis Directors believe that this transition is particularly important for Aquis' prospects of securing future national stock exchange and central bank clients. The Aquis Directors are confident that this investment will be successful in unlocking future value but recognises that execution risk exists in any investment programme and the timing and quantum of new contract wins is uncertain.

Aquis Markets' growth has been driven by a differentiated product offering across lit and dark pools, with flexible trading rules attracting liquidity from a diverse collection of providers. The Aquis Directors expect that continued product innovation and the market impact of the introduction of a European Consolidated Tape will be the key drivers of future growth for Aquis Markets and Aquis Data. Growth in Aquis Stock Exchange is expected to be driven by an increase in the number and scale of market participants alongside market expansion.

Whilst the Aquis Directors are confident in the growth potential in each division, they recognise that the European exchange market remains highly competitive and requires ongoing investment in technology and distribution against well-resourced peers operating with greater scale. Aquis' future growth is predicated on an increase in new technology clients, retention of existing clients and an increase in European equity market volumes and issuers, and the timing and impact of a European Consolidated Tape, which are uncertain and contain an element of volatility.

The Aquis Directors believe that Aquis could realise the full potential of its current strategy on a standalone basis in the medium term but recognises that there are operational, commercial and market risks associated with the timing of delivery of future value. The Aquis Directors have assessed the Offer in this context.

Reasons for the recommendation

Following careful consideration, the Aquis Directors have concluded that the terms of the Offer provide Aquis shareholders with an attractive opportunity to accelerate and de-risk future value creation and realise certain value of their holdings today in cash.

The Cash Consideration follows extensive discussions and negotiations with SIX. The Aquis Directors received prior unsolicited proposals from SIX to acquire Aquis, all of which were rejected by the Aquis Directors.

The Aquis Directors have taken all relevant factors into account in considering the terms of the Offer, including:

- The opportunity for Aquis Shareholders to realise a fair and reasonable value for their holdings in cash. The certainty of the Offer should be weighed against the operational, commercial and market risks associated with Aquis executing on its strategy and delivering such value as an independent listed company.
- That the transaction provides certain value for shareholders at a significant premium of approximately:
 - 120 per cent. to the Closing Price per Aquis Share of 330 pence on the Latest Practicable Date;
 - 68 per cent. to the volume-weighted average price per Aquis Share of 433 pence over the six-month period ending on the Latest Practicable Date;
 - 76 per cent. to the volume-weighted average price per Aquis Share of 413 pence over the nine-month period ending on the Latest Practicable Date; and

- 45 per cent. to the highest closing price per Aquis Share of 500 pence in the 12-month period prior to the Latest Practicable Date.
- The Cash Consideration implies valuation multiples for Aquis that the Aquis Directors consider to be attractive.
- That SIX recognises the high quality of the employees of Aquis and their importance to the success of Aquis following an acquisition and, as set out in more detail in paragraph 9 below, SIX intends to put in place incentivisation arrangements for management of Aquis following the Scheme becoming Effective.

The Aquis Directors welcome SIX's stated strategic plans and intentions for Aquis and believe that under SIX's ownership, Aquis will be better placed to deliver on its strategy of developing innovative capital market solutions. Aquis will benefit from leveraging SIX's scale, access to capital and operational resources, providing a stable platform for Aquis to accelerate the development of its business and to challenge the pan-European incumbents in all parts of the value chain. The Aquis Directors believe that the complementary nature of SIX and Aquis' products, technology assets, culture and expertise will promote innovation and the development of infrastructure and exchange solutions, and the combined group will be better placed in assisting SMEs and growth companies in accessing capital markets.

In addition, the Aquis Directors are pleased to note SIX's stated intentions concerning Aquis' strategy, growth plans, management and employees, and other stakeholders of Aquis. The Aquis Directors also welcome SIX's confirmation that, following the scheme becoming Effective, the existing employment rights (including pension rights) of the management and employees of Aquis will be fully safeguarded in accordance with applicable laws.

Therefore, having taken into account all relevant factors, including those set out above, the Aquis Directors intend to recommend unanimously to Aquis Shareholders the Offer of Aquis by SIX.

5. Recommendation

The Aquis Directors, who have been so advised by Evercore as to the financial terms of the Offer, consider the terms of the Offer to be fair and reasonable. In providing advice to the Aquis Directors, Evercore have taken into account the commercial assessments of the Aquis Directors. Evercore is providing independent financial advice to the Aquis Directors for the purposes of Rule 3 of the Takeover Code.

Accordingly, the Aquis Directors intend to unanimously recommend that Aquis Shareholders vote (or procure votes) in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and to vote (or procure votes) in favour of the Aquis Resolution(s) at the General Meeting as the Aquis Directors who (or whose immediate family) beneficially hold Aquis Shares have irrevocably undertaken to do (or procure to be done) in respect of 1,406,446 Aquis Shares in total, representing in aggregate approximately 5.1 per cent. of Aquis' ordinary share capital in issue as at the Latest Practicable Date. These irrevocable undertakings remain binding in the event a higher competing offer is made for Aquis by a third party.

6. Irrevocables

In addition to the irrevocable undertakings given by the Aquis Directors referred to above, SIX has also received irrevocable undertakings from XTX Investments UK Limited, Gaudenzio

Roveda, Richard Ricci, Kendall Capital Markets, LLC and Jonathan Clelland to vote (or procure votes) in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and the Aquis Resolution(s) at the General Meeting in respect of 9,229,138 Aquis Shares, representing approximately 33.5 per cent. of the ordinary share capital of Aquis in issue as at the Latest Practicable Date. The irrevocable undertakings given by XTX Investments UK Limited, Richard Ricci and Jonathan Clelland remain binding in the event a higher competing offer is made for Aquis by a third party.

In addition, SIX has also received non-binding letters of intent from Schroder Investment Management Limited and Canaccord Genuity Asset Management Limited to vote (or procure votes) in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and the Aquis Resolution(s) at the General Meeting, in respect of, in aggregate, 3,342,123 Aquis Shares, representing approximately 12.1 per cent. of the ordinary share capital of Aquis in issue as at the Latest Practicable Date.

SIX has therefore received, in aggregate, irrevocable undertakings and letters of intent in respect of 13,977,707 Aquis Shares, representing approximately 51 per cent. of Aquis' ordinary share capital in issue as at the Latest Practicable Date.

Further details of these irrevocable undertakings and letters of intent, including the circumstances in which they may lapse, are set out in Appendix 3 to this Announcement.

9. Strategic plans, directors, management, employees, pensions, research and development and locations

SIX's strategic plans for Aquis

SIX operates a fully integrated exchange value chain, offering a diversified product portfolio for securities trading, stock market transactions, financial information and payment transactions, across multiple geographies. Central to SIX's exchange strategy has been a focus on addressing liquidity fragmentation trends by continually innovating the functionalities of its platform offering.

SIX and Aquis have a shared commitment to capital markets innovation and SIX believes that the combined group will benefit from the complementary product and technology assets of each business which will enable the combined group to provide enhanced exchange solutions to the benefit of customers. SIX expects to benefit from Aquis' resources and capabilities, including its infrastructure services, next-generation technology, market models, and product offering. In combination with Aquis' infrastructure that facilitates SMEs and growth companies in accessing capital markets, the acquisition is expected to create the opportunity for a competitive pan-European listing venue complementing SIX's existing growth segments and extending SIX's access to additional revenue pools.

SIX intends to preserve maximum agility and organisational speed for Aquis, with appropriate SIX involvement from a compliance, IT security and risk perspective. This will include the retention of Aquis as an independent brand. SIX intends to support Aquis in continuing its innovative approach to developing capital market solutions in collaboration with SIX, whilst benefiting from SIX's scale, financial stability and resources. SIX believes the combination will enhance Aquis' ability to further develop its business model in collaboration with SIX.

SIX notes Aquis' announcement on 29 October 2024, of its intention to form a joint venture with Cboe Europe, a division of Cboe Global Markets, Inc., which plans to explore a bid to perform the role of the EU's equity consolidated tape provider. Following the Effective Date, if Aquis continues to explore or is pursuing a bid to perform the equity consolidated tape provider role, SIX intends to withdraw from EuroCTP, the consortium for the consolidated tape provider role that SIX is participating in.

Employees and management

SIX recognises that a key component of Aquis' success is the skills, vision and experience of its management team and employees. SIX believes that this expertise will be important for the success of Aquis within the SIX Group.

It is SIX's intention that Aquis' existing executive management team will lead Aquis within the SIX Group.

SIX does not intend to make any material changes to the overall headcount and functions of Aquis and where any unanticipated changes may occur, SIX would seek to redeploy any individuals affected within the combined group. SIX does not anticipate any material change in the balance of skills and functions of employees and management of Aquis, or to their conditions of employment.

SIX believes that Aquis employees will benefit from broader development and career opportunities through being part of a larger combined group with a more extensive international presence. Both SIX and Aquis have closely aligned cultures and believe in promoting a cooperative corporate culture, underpinned by transparency and mutual trust.

It is intended that each of the non-executive directors of Aquis shall resign from their office with effect from the Effective Date.

Existing employment rights and pension schemes

SIX confirms that, following the scheme becoming Effective, the existing employment rights (including in relation to pensions) of all Aquis employees will be fully safeguarded in accordance with applicable laws. SIX does not intend to make any changes to Aquis' defined contribution pension rates or member admission/eligibility criteria. Aquis does not operate a defined benefit pension scheme.

Management incentivisation arrangements

SIX has not entered into, nor had any discussions regarding, any form of incentive arrangements with any member of Aquis' management. However, SIX intends to put in place incentive arrangements for the Aquis management team following the Scheme becoming Effective.

Headquarters, locations, fixed assets and research and development

SIX has no intention to change the principal locations of Aquis' business or the location or functions of Aquis' headquarters during the 12 months following the Effective Date. However, in the longer term, SIX intends to assess the best way to enhance collaboration between SIX and Aquis and maximise the benefits of working alongside each other, which may include combining offices in London and Paris respectively. SIX does not have any current intention to redeploy any of the material fixed assets of Aquis.

SIX is committed to supporting Aquis' continued expansion and development through a collaborative and responsible ownership approach. This is expected to include further investments to continue building Aquis' pan-European data offering, platform, and technology capabilities. SIX plans to undertake a detailed review of Aquis' research and development function alongside Aquis' management team to identify additional opportunities for growth, which may result in further areas of collaboration beyond data offering, platform, and technology.

Trading Facilities

As set out in paragraph 14, an application will be made for the cancellation of trading of Aquis Shares on AIM and a request will be made to withdraw Aquis Shares from trading on the Aquis Stock Exchange, with effect from or shortly following the Effective Date. It is also intended that steps will be taken to re-register Aquis as a private limited company to take effect as soon as practicable following the Effective Date.

None of the statements in this paragraph 9 are "post-offer undertakings" for the purposes of Rule 19.5 of the Takeover Code.

10. Aquis Share Plans

Participants in the Aquis Share Plans will be contacted regarding the effect of the Offer on their rights under the Aquis Share Plans and appropriate proposals, which reflect their rights under the Aquis Share Plans, will be made to such participants in due course. Details of the impact of the Scheme on each of the Aquis Share Plans and the proposals will be set out in the Scheme Document and in separate letters to be sent to participants in the Aquis Share Plans.

11. Financing

SIX intends to finance the transaction using a combination of existing cash and from the proceeds of the SIX Group's credit facilities. SIX has entered into a dedicated bridge facility agreement in an amount of up to £240 million with UBS Switzerland AG (the "Facility Agreement") for the purposes of satisfying the certain funds requirement of the Takeover Code.

UBS, as financial adviser to SIX, is satisfied that sufficient resources are available to SIX to enable it to satisfy in full the Cash Consideration payable under the terms of the Offer.

Further information on the financing of the Offer will be set out in the Scheme Document.

12. Offer-related arrangements

These confidentiality obligations will remain in force until the earlier of (i) 24 months from the date of the Confidentiality Agreement; and (ii) the date of completion of the Offer, except where expressly provided otherwise in the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement.

On 21 October 2024, SIX, Aquis and their respective external counsel entered into a confidentiality and joint defence agreement (the "Confidentiality and Joint Defence Agreement"), the purpose of which is to ensure that the exchange and/or disclosure of certain materials relating to the parties and in relation to, in particular, the anti-trust and regulatory workstream only takes place between their respective external counsel and external experts, and does not diminish in any way the confidentiality of such materials and does not result in a waiver of any privilege, right or immunity that might otherwise be available.

Clean Team Agreement

On 21 October 2024, SIX and Aquis entered into a clean team agreement (the "Clean Team Agreement") which sets out, among other things, how confidential information that is competitively sensitive can be disclosed, used or shared between SIX's clean team individuals and/or external advisers retained by SIX and Aquis' clean team individuals and/or external advisers retained by Aquis.

SIX reserves the right to elect to effect the Offer by way of a Takeover Offer (subject to the consent of the Panel (where necessary) and the terms of the Co-operation Agreement).

The purpose of the Scheme is to provide for SIX to become the holders of the entire issued and to be issued ordinary share capital of Aquis. This is to be achieved by the transfer of the Scheme Shares to SIX, in consideration for which Scheme Shareholders will receive the Cash Consideration on the basis set out in paragraph 2 of this Announcement.

The Cash Consideration payable under the terms of the Offer will be despatched to Aquis Shareholders within 14 days of the Effective Date.

Conditions to the Offer

The Offer is subject to the Conditions, certain further terms referred to in Appendix 1 to this Announcement and the full terms and conditions to be set out in the Scheme Document, and shall only become Effective if, among other things, the following events occur on or before the Long Stop Date:

- a resolution to approve the Scheme is passed by a majority in number of the Scheme Shareholders present and voting (and entitled to vote) at the Court Meeting, either in person or by proxy, representing at least 75 per cent. in value of the Scheme Shares voted by those Scheme Shareholders;

- the Aquis Resolution(s) required to implement the Offer are duly passed by Aquis Shareholders at the General Meeting (which will require approval of Aquis Shareholders representing at least 75 per cent. of the votes validly cast at such General Meeting, either in person or by proxy);
- certain regulatory approvals having been obtained from, or if applicable non-objection by, the FCA, ACPR, FINMA, CNMC and/or if required, the European Commission and the CMA, as described in Appendix 1 (unless waived, if applicable);
- following the Court Meeting and the General Meeting, the Scheme is sanctioned by the Court (without modification, or with modification on terms agreed by SIX and Aquis); and
- following such sanction, a copy of the Court Order is delivered to the Registrar of Companies.

The Conditions in paragraph 2 of Part A of Appendix 1 to this Announcement provide that the Scheme will lapse if:

- the Court Meeting and the General Meeting are not held on or before the 22nd day after the expected date of such meetings to be set out in the Scheme Document in due course (or such later date, if any, (a) as SIX and Aquis may agree or (b) (in a competitive situation) as may be specified by SIX with the consent of the Panel, and in each case that (if so required) the Court may allow);
- the Court hearing to sanction the Scheme is not held on or before the 22nd day after the expected date of such hearing to be set out in the Scheme Document in due course (or such later date, if any, (a) as SIX and Aquis may agree or (b) (in a competitive situation) as may be specified by SIX with the consent of the Panel, and in each case that (if so required) the Court may allow); or
- the Scheme does not become Effective on or before the Long Stop Date (or such later date, if any, (a) as SIX and Aquis may agree or (b) (in a competitive situation) as may be specified by SIX with the consent of the Panel, and in each case that (if so required) the Court may allow).

Effect of the Scheme and publication of the Scheme Document

Subject to the satisfaction (or, where applicable, waiver) of the Conditions and the further terms set out in Appendix 1 to this Announcement, the Scheme is expected to become Effective in Q2 2025.

Upon the Scheme becoming Effective: (i) it will be binding on all Scheme Shareholders, irrespective of whether or not they attended or voted at the Court Meeting or the General Meeting (and if they attended and voted, whether or not they voted in favour); and (ii) entitlements to Aquis Shares held within the CREST system will be cancelled; and (iii) share certificates in respect of Aquis Shares will cease to be valid. Aquis Shareholders shall be required to return share certificates to Aquis or destroy them following the Effective Date.

Any Aquis Shares issued before the Scheme Record Time will be subject to the terms of the Scheme and any Aquis Shares issued following the Scheme Record Time will be transferred to SIX (or as it may direct) in exchange for the same consideration as would be due under the Scheme (in each case, subject to the Scheme becoming Effective in accordance with its terms). The Aquis Resolution(s) at the General Meeting will, amongst other matters, provide that the Aquis Articles be amended to incorporate provisions requiring any Aquis Shares issued after the Scheme Record Time (other than to SIX and/or its nominees) to be automatically transferred to SIX (and, where applicable, for the Cash Consideration to be paid to the original recipient of the Aquis Shares so issued) on the same terms as the Offer (other than terms as to timings and formalities). The provisions of the Aquis Articles (as amended) will avoid any person (other than SIX and its nominees) holding shares in the capital of Aquis after the Effective Date.

Further details of the Scheme, including expected times and dates for each of the Court Meeting, the General Meeting and the Sanction Hearing, together with notices of the Court Meeting and General Meeting, will be set out in the Scheme Document. The Scheme Document, together with the associated Forms of Proxy, will be made available to Aquis Shareholders as soon as reasonably practicable, and in any event within 28 days of this Announcement (or such later time as SIX, Aquis and the Panel agree and, if required, the Court may approve). The General Meeting is expected to be held immediately after the Court Meeting.

The Scheme will be governed by English law and is subject to the jurisdiction of the Court. The Scheme will also be subject to the applicable requirements of the Takeover Code, the Panel, the London Stock Exchange, the FCA, the AIM Rules and the Aquis Rules.

14. Cancellation of trading of shares and re-registration

It is intended that: (a) an application will be made to the London Stock Exchange to cancel the admission to trading in Aquis Shares on AIM; and (b) a request will be made to withdraw Aquis Shares from trading on the Aquis Stock Exchange, with such cancellation and/or withdrawal expected to take effect shortly after the Effective Date. The last day of dealings in, and registration of transfers of, Aquis Shares on AIM and the Aquis Stock Exchange is expected to be the date of the Court hearing to sanction the Scheme and no transfers will be registered after 6.00 pm (London time) on that date.

On the Effective Date, share certificates in respect of Aquis Shares will cease to be valid and entitlements to Aquis Shares held within the CREST system will be cancelled. Aquis Shareholders shall be required to return share certificates to Aquis or destroy them following the Effective Date.

It is also proposed that, on or following the Effective Date and after the cancellation of its shares from trading, Aquis will be re-registered as a private limited company under the relevant provisions of the Companies Act.

15. Disclosure of interests in Aquis

As at the close of business on the Latest Practicable Date, save for the irrevocable undertakings and letters of intent referred to in paragraph 6 of this Announcement or as disclosed below, neither SIX, nor any of its directors, nor, so far as SIX is aware, any person acting in concert (within the meaning of the Takeover Code) with any of them for the purposes of the Offer had:

- (i) any interest in or right to subscribe for any relevant securities of Aquis;
- (ii) any short positions in respect of relevant securities of Aquis (whether conditional or absolute and whether in the money or otherwise), including any short position under a derivative, any agreement to sell or any delivery obligation or right to require another person to purchase or take delivery;
- (iii) borrowed or lent any relevant securities of Aquis (including, for these purposes, any financial collateral arrangements of the kind referred to in Note 4 on Rule 4.6 of the Takeover Code), save for any borrowed relevant securities of Aquis which had been either on-lent or sold; or
- (iv) entered into any dealing arrangement of the kind referred to in Note 11 on the definition of acting in concert in the Takeover Code.

"Interests in securities" for these purposes arise, in summary, when a person has long economic exposure, whether absolute or conditional, to changes in the price of securities (and a person who only has a short position in securities is not treated as interested in those securities). In particular, a person will be treated as having an 'interest' by virtue of the ownership, voting rights or control of securities, or by virtue of any agreement to purchase, option in respect of, or derivative referenced to, securities.

Name	Nature of interest	Number of Aquis Shares held	Percentage of Aquis' issued share capital as at close of business on 7 November 2024
UBS AG	Ordinary shares	61,054	0.22%

It has not been possible for SIX to make enquiries of all of its concert parties in advance of the release of this Announcement. Therefore, if SIX becomes aware, following the making of such enquiries, that any of its concert parties have any interests in relevant securities of Aquis, all relevant details in respect of SIX's concert parties will be included in the Opening Position Disclosure in accordance with Rule 8.1(a) and Note 2(a)(i) on Rule 8 of the Takeover Code which must be made on or before 12 noon (London time) on 25 November 2024.

16. General

SIX reserves the right to elect (with the consent of the Panel and subject to the terms of the Cooperation Agreement) to implement the Offer by way of a Takeover Offer for the entire issued and to be issued ordinary share capital of Aquis as an alternative to the Scheme. In such event, the Offer will be implemented on substantially the same terms, so far as applicable, as those which would apply to the Scheme, subject to appropriate amendments to reflect, among other things, the change in method effecting the Offer (including, without limitation) inclusion of an acceptance condition set at 75 per cent. of the Aquis Shares (or such lesser percentage as SIX may decide after, to the extent necessary, consultation with the Panel, being in any case more than 50 per cent. of the Aquis Shares), the inclusion of a long-stop date on which the Takeover Offer will cease to proceed, will lapse or will be withdrawn in certain circumstances, and those amendments required by, or deemed appropriate by, SIX under applicable law.

The Offer will be subject to the Conditions and further terms set out in Appendix 1 to this Announcement and the full terms and conditions to be set out in the Scheme Document in due course. The sources and bases of certain financial information contained in this Announcement are set out in Appendix 2 to this Announcement. A summary of the irrevocable undertakings given in relation to the Offer is contained in Appendix 3 to this Announcement. Certain terms used in this Announcement are defined in Appendix 4 to this Announcement.

UBS, Evercore, Investec, Canaccord Genuity and VSA Capital have each given and not withdrawn their consent to the inclusion in this Announcement of the references to their names in the form and context in which they appear.

This Announcement does not constitute an offer or an invitation to purchase or subscribe for any securities. Such offer will be contained in the Scheme Document. Aquis Shareholders are advised to read carefully the Scheme Document and associated Forms of Proxy once they have been dispatched.

The availability of the Offer to Aquis Shareholders who are not resident in and citizens of the United Kingdom may be affected by the laws of the relevant jurisdictions in which they are located or of which they are citizens. Persons who are not resident in the United Kingdom should inform themselves of, and observe, any applicable legal or regulatory requirements of their jurisdictions. Aquis Shareholders who are in any doubt regarding such matters should consult an appropriate independent professional adviser in the relevant jurisdiction without delay.

Additional information for US investors

The Offer relates to the shares of an English company and is being made by means of a scheme of arrangement provided for under English company law. A transaction effected by means of a scheme of arrangement is not subject to the tender offer or proxy solicitation rules under the US Exchange Act. Accordingly, the Offer is subject to the disclosure requirements and practices applicable in the United Kingdom to schemes of arrangement which differ from the disclosure requirements of the US tender offer and proxy solicitation rules.

If, in the future, SIX exercises its right to implement the Offer by way of a Takeover Offer, which is to be made into the US, such Takeover Offer will be made in compliance with the applicable US laws and regulations, including Section 14(e) and Regulation 14E under the US Exchange Act. Such a Takeover Offer would be made in the US by SIX and no one else.

In the event that the Offer is implemented by way of Takeover Offer, in accordance with, and to the extent permitted by, the Takeover Code and normal UK market practice, UBS and their respective affiliates may continue to act as exempt principal traders or exempt market makers in Aquis Shares on the London Stock Exchange and will engage in certain other purchasing activities consistent with their respective normal and usual practice and applicable law, as permitted by Rule 14e-5(b)(9) under the US Exchange Act. In addition, SIX, its affiliates, their advisers and the nominees or brokers (acting as agents) may make certain purchases of, or arrangements to purchase, shares in Aquis outside the Offer, such as in open market purchases or privately negotiated purchases, during the period in which the Offer remains open for acceptance. If such purchases or arrangements to purchase were to be made, they would be made outside the US and would comply with applicable law, including UK laws and the US Exchange Act. Any such purchases by SIX or its affiliates will not be made at prices higher than the price of the Offer provided in this Announcement unless the price of the Offer is increased accordingly. Any information about such purchases or arrangements to purchase shall be disclosed as required under UK laws and will be available to all investors (including US investors) via the Regulatory Information Service and shall be available on the London Stock Exchange website at www.londonstockexchange.com. To the extent that such information is required to be publicly disclosed in the UK in accordance with applicable regulatory requirements, this information will, as applicable, also be publicly disclosed in the United States.

It may be difficult for US holders of Aquis Shares to enforce their rights and any claim arising out of the US federal securities laws in connection with the Offer, since SIX and Aquis are located in a non-US jurisdiction, and some or all of their officers and directors may be residents of a non-US jurisdiction. US holders of Aquis Shares may not be able to sue a non-US company or its officers or directors in a non-US court for violations of the US securities laws. Further, it may be difficult to compel a non-US company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a US court's judgement.

The financial information included in this Announcement, or that may be included in the Scheme Document, has been prepared in accordance with accounting standards applicable in the United Kingdom and thus may not be comparable to financial information of US companies or companies whose financial statements are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the US ("US GAAP"). US GAAP differs in certain significant respects from accounting standards applicable in the United Kingdom. None of the financial information in this Announcement has been audited in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States or the auditing standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States).

Neither the Offer nor this Announcement have been approved or disapproved by the US Securities and Exchange Commission, any state securities commission in the United States or any other US regulatory authority, nor have such authorities approved or disapproved or passed judgement upon the fairness or the merits of the Offer, or determined if the information contained in this Announcement is adequate, accurate or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offence in the United States.

The receipt of cash pursuant to the Offer by a US holder as consideration for the transfer of its Aquis Shares pursuant to the Offer will likely be a taxable transaction for US federal income tax purposes and under applicable US state and local, as well as foreign and other, tax laws. Each US holder of Aquis Shares is urged to consult their independent legal, tax and financial advisers regarding the tax consequences of the Offer applicable to them, including under applicable US state and local, as well as overseas and other, tax laws.

Other unknown or unpredictable factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward looking statements. Such forward looking statements should therefore be construed in light of such factors. Neither SIX nor Aquis, nor any of their respective associates or directors, officers or advisers, provides any representation, assurance or guarantee that the occurrence of the events expressed or implied in any forward looking statements in this Announcement will actually occur. Due to such uncertainties and risks, readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward looking statements, which speak only as of the date hereof. No profit forecasts, profit estimates or quantified financial benefit statements

No statement in this Announcement is intended as, or is to be construed as, a profit forecast, profit estimate or quantified financial benefit statement for any period and no statement in this Announcement should be interpreted to mean that earnings or earnings per share for Aquis for the current or future financial years would necessarily match or exceed the historical published earnings or earnings per share for Aquis.

Disclosure requirements of the Takeover Code

Under Rule 8.3(a) of the Takeover Code, any person who is interested in 1 per cent. or more of any class of relevant securities of an offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror (being any offeror other than an offeror in respect of which it has been announced that its offer is, or is likely to be, solely in cash) must make an Opening Position Disclosure following the commencement of the Offer Period and, if later, following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. An Opening Position Disclosure must contain details of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s). An Opening Position Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(a) applies must be made by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the 10th business day following the commencement of the Offer Period and, if appropriate, by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the 10th business day following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. Relevant persons who deal in the relevant securities of the offeree company or of a securities exchange offeror prior to the deadline for making an Opening Position Disclosure must instead make a Dealing Disclosure.

Under Rule 8.3(b) of the Takeover Code, any person who is, or becomes, interested in 1 per cent. or more of any class of relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror must make a Dealing Disclosure if the person deals in any relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror. A Dealing Disclosure must contain details of the dealing concerned and of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s), save to the extent that these details have previously been disclosed under Rule 8. A Dealing Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(b) applies must be made by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the business day following the date of the relevant dealing.

If two or more persons act together pursuant to an agreement or understanding, whether formal or informal, to acquire or control an interest in relevant securities of an offeree company or a securities exchange offeror, they will be deemed to be a single person for the purpose of Rule 8.3.

Opening Position Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company and by any offeror and Dealing Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company, by any offeror and by any persons acting in concert with any of them (see Rules 8.1, 8.2 and 8.4).

Details of the offeree and offeror companies in respect of whose relevant securities Opening Position Disclosures and Dealing Disclosures must be made can be found in the Disclosure Table on the Panel's website at www.thetakeoverpanel.org.uk, including details of the number of relevant securities in issue, when the Offer Period commenced and when any offeror was first identified. You should contact the Panel's Market Surveillance Unit on +44 (0)20 7638 0129 if you are in any doubt as to whether you are required to make an Opening Position Disclosure or a Dealing Disclosure.

PART B: FURTHER TERMS OF THE OFFER

1. The Conditions set out in paragraphs 2(a), 2(b) and 3(a) to (r) (inclusive) of Part A above must each be fulfilled or (if capable of waiver) be waived by SIX prior to the commencement of the Sanction Hearing, failing which the Scheme will lapse.
2. Notwithstanding the paragraph above, subject to the requirements of the Panel and the Takeover Code, SIX reserves the right in its sole discretion to waive:
 - (a) the deadlines set out in paragraph 1 of Part A above, and any of the deadlines set out in paragraphs 2(a)(ii), 2(b)(ii) and 2(c)(ii) of Part A above for the timing of the Court Meeting, the General Meeting and/or the Sanction Hearing. If any such deadline is not met, SIX will make an announcement by 8.00 a.m. on the Business Day following such deadline confirming whether it has invoked or waived the relevant Condition or agreed with Aquis to extend the deadline in relation to the relevant Condition. For the avoidance of doubt, the Conditions set out in paragraphs 2(a)(i), 2(b)(i), 2(c)(i), and 2(d) of Part A above cannot be waived; and
 - (b) in whole or in part, all or any of the above Conditions set out in paragraphs 3(a) to (r) (inclusive) of Part A above.
3. SIX shall be under no obligation to waive or treat as satisfied any of the Conditions that it is entitled (with the consent of the Panel and subject to the requirements of the Takeover Code) to waive, by a date earlier than the latest date specified above for the fulfilment or waiver thereof, notwithstanding that the other Conditions may at such earlier date have been waived or fulfilled and that there are at such earlier date no circumstances indicating that any of such Conditions may not be capable of fulfilment.
4. If SIX is required by the Panel to make an offer for Aquis Shares under the provisions of Rule 9 of the Takeover Code, SIX may make such alterations to any of the above Conditions and terms of the Offer as are necessary to comply with the provisions of Rule 9.
5. Under Rule 13.5(a) of the Takeover Code and subject to paragraph 6, SIX may only invoke a Condition so as to cause the Offer not to proceed, to lapse or to be withdrawn with the consent of the Panel and any Condition that is subject to Rule 13.5(a) of the Takeover Code may be waived by SIX. The Panel will normally only give its consent if the circumstances which give rise to the right to invoke the Condition are of material significance to SIX in the context of the Offer. This will be judged by reference to the facts of each case at the time that the relevant circumstances arise.
6. Conditions 1, 2(a), 2(b), 2(c) and 2(d) of Part A above and, if applicable, any acceptance condition if the Offer is implemented by means of a Takeover Offer, are not subject to Rule 13.5(a) of the Takeover Code.
7. The Aquis Shares to be acquired under the Offer will be acquired with full title guarantee, fully paid and free from all liens, equities, charges, encumbrances, options, rights of pre-emption and any other third party rights and interests of any nature and together with all rights now or hereafter attaching or accruing to them, including, without limitation, voting rights and the right to receive and retain in full all dividends and other distributions and any return of capital (whether by reduction of share capital or share premium account or otherwise) declared, made, paid or becoming payable by reference to a record date falling on or after the Effective Date and any dividend, distribution or return of capital in respect of which a corresponding reduction in the consideration payable under the terms of the Offer has been made as described in paragraph 8 below.

8. Subject to the terms of the Offer, if, on or after the date of this Announcement and on or prior to the Effective Date, any dividend and/or other distribution and/or return of capital is authorised, declared, made or paid or becomes payable in respect of Aquis Shares, SIX reserves the right to reduce the Cash Consideration payable under the terms of the Offer by an amount equal to all or part of any such dividend and/or other distribution and/or return of capital, in which case: (a) any reference in this Announcement or in the Scheme Document to the Cash Consideration for the Aquis Shares will be deemed to be a reference to the Cash Consideration as so reduced; and (b) the relevant Aquis Shareholders will be entitled to receive and retain any such dividend and/or other distribution and/or return of capital authorised, declared, made or paid. To the extent that any such dividend, distribution or return of capital is authorised, declared, made or paid or becomes payable: (x) pursuant to the Offer on a basis which entitles SIX to receive the dividend or distribution or return of capital and to retain it; or (y) is subsequently cancelled, the Cash Consideration will not be subject to change in accordance with this paragraph. Any exercise by SIX of its rights referred to in this paragraph shall be the subject of an announcement and, for the avoidance of doubt, shall not be regarded as constituting any revision or variation of the Offer.
9. SIX reserves the right to elect (with the consent of the Panel (where necessary) and subject to the terms of the Co-operation Agreement) to implement the Offer by way of a Takeover Offer as an alternative to the Scheme. In such event, the offer will be implemented on substantially the same terms subject to appropriate amendments, including (without limitation) an acceptance condition set at 75 per cent. (or such lesser percentage as SIX may decide after, to the extent necessary, consultation with the Panel, being in any case more than 50 per cent. of the Aquis Shares), so far as applicable, as those which would apply to the Scheme. Further, if sufficient acceptances of such Takeover Offer are received and/or sufficient Aquis Shares are otherwise acquired, it is the intention of SIX to apply the provisions of the Companies Act to acquire compulsorily any outstanding Aquis Shares to which such Takeover Offer relates.
10. The availability of the Offer to persons not resident in the United Kingdom may be affected by the laws of the relevant jurisdictions. Persons who are not resident in the United Kingdom should inform themselves about and observe any applicable legal and regulatory requirements.
11. The Offer is not being made, directly or indirectly, in, into or from, or by use of the mails of, or by any means of instrumentality (including, but not limited to, facsimile, e-mail or other electronic transmission, telex or telephone) of interstate or foreign commerce of, or of any facility of a national, state or other securities exchange of, any Restricted Jurisdiction.
12. The Scheme will be governed by English law and is subject to the jurisdiction of the Court and to the Conditions and further terms set out in this Appendix 1 to this Announcement, and to the full terms and Conditions to be set out in the Scheme

Document. The Offer will be subject to the applicable requirements of the Takeover Code, the Panel, the London Stock Exchange (including the AIM Rules and the Aquis Rules) and the FCA.

13. Each of the Conditions will be regarded as a separate Condition and will not be limited by reference to any other Condition.
